women's underwear. One shipment contained potato flour. Each train has to 50 or 55 cars. The consignee was designated on Derutra records with three words, the initials of which were M. K. H. The third word was Moscow; part of the first and second words was the word "import". The clothing for these shipments came mainly from textile firms in the vicinity of Chemnitz. Chemnitz, e.g.:

Rezenia, Limbach (VEB): Baumgaertel, Limbach-Oberfrohna; Gaertner, Limbach

With the exception of these Wismut shipments, all shipments handled by Derutra-Chemnitz were covered by individual instructions sent from Derutra "eadquarters in Berlin. In the latter case, unidentified officers from Wismut headquarters simply visited the local Chemnitz office and arranged for the shipments locally.
